NARRATIVE:

Grajeda, a documented member of the 18th street gang, has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 20. His convictions include felon in possession of a firearm, carrying a loaded firearm, burglary, evading police: disregard for safety, false personation of another, driving under the influence of alcohol, and absconding from supervision. He has served multiple state prison terms the longest a four (4) year term for evading police: disregard for safety. Grajeda was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on March 03rd, 2013. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in March 2014 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Grajeda qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for evading police: disregard for safety, is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His prior criminal history, and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
